OTTAWA (CP) — Canada piled up a record $1,460,000,000 deficit in commodity trade and other international transactions last year and went deeper into debt to cover the shortage, the bureau of statistics reported today.

The country's net indebtedness to other countries mostly in the form of foreign-held investments in Canada—rose to $15,400,000,000 at the end of 1959 from $13,500,000,000 a year earlier.

The year's deficit in current international transactions rose by $375,000,000 from the 1958 level of $1,085,000,000, and exceeded the previous record high of $1,424,000,000 in 1957.

West Agrees On Disarmament

PARIS (Reuters) — The five Western powers have agreed on a unified disarmament plan to be presented to the East-West conference opening in Geneva next Tuesday, a NATO spokesman said today.

The NATO permanent council today heard details of the plan worked out in the last two days by representatives of the United States, Britain, Canada, France and Italy.

The five countries earlier had been reported at odds on a common approach to the Soviet bloc at Geneva.

Main difficulty was reported to be France's insistence on scrapping all nuclear weapons rather than reducing them step by step.

The NATO spokesman said the western plan "was serious and devoid of any propaganda." He said it must remain secret for the time being.

Sources close to NATO said the plan was a compromise between the British phase-by-phase plan, the French plan for giving priority to nuclear disarmament, and views expressed by the United States, Canadian and Italian governments during expert talks in Washington in January.

In Geneva the Western delegates will meet representatives of the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Romania and Bulgaria.

The Western plan was presented to the NATO council during its two-hour session by Frederick Eaton, chief United States delegate.

The council is not expected to take a decision on the plan. The permanent representatives were informed of it under the machinery of consultation within the Atlantic alliance.

LEGISLATURE AT A GLANCE

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Wednesday, March 9

Education Minister Peterson said he has recommended purchase of film showing dangers of smoking, for showing in B.C. high schools.

He also said television and other means of communication were the reasons English in B.C. schools was not all it could be, and that he hoped the royal commission on education report, due within the next few months, would have some of the answers.

Mrs. Lois Hagen (CCF-Grand Forks-Greenwood) urged establishment of junior colleges in the province.

The legislature rose at 10:45 p.m. until 2:15 p.m. today.

This afternoon the house will consider health department estimates.

Five Dug Alive From Rubble

RABAT, Morocco (Reuters)—Rescue workers today found three girls, a man and a boy still alive in the ruins of Agadir, devastated by an earthquake 10 days ago.

In weak condition after their entombment, the five were dug from the rubble of the Tabourj Mosque quarter after rescuers heard feeble cries coming from the debris.

Two-For-One Trade Pact With Russia Proposed

OTTAWA (CP) — Canada is negotiating with Russia for a new trade treaty calling for a two-to-one exchange of goods between the two countries, a trade department source said today.

The government is hopeful that the Russians will agree to an arrangement under which Soviet state trade agencies would buy $2 worth of Canadian goods for every $1 sale of Russian products to Canada.

Gov. Brown's Bill Defeated

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—A 12½-hour non-stop hearing ended early today with narrow defeat in the California legislature for Governor Edmund G. Brown's bill to repeal the death penalty.

The 8-to-7 vote by the Senate judiciary committee may have shattered convict-author Caryl Chessman's last hope in his 11½-year fight to escape death in the gas chamber.

Introduction of a similar bill in the assembly was not planned and no further legislative action was expected on the death penalty before Chessman's scheduled execution May 2.

It was Brown's reprieve of Chessman and his calling of a special session on capital punishment that touched off the debate.

Yet, as if by tacit agreement, not a single witness mentioned the controversial prisoner by name.

Canada also is proposing that Russia agree to buy Canadian wheat under the terms of the pact. Sources declined to give an exact figure but said it would be less than 15,000,000 bushels annually.

These sources said that Russian demand for wheat is not as pressing as it was when Canada signed a three-year trade treaty with Russia for the 1956-58 period.

At that time Russia agreed to buy 14,500,000 bushels of wheat annually to supply the Siberian market. It was cheaper for Russia to export Canadian wheat for this market than to ship it in from Soviet wheat-producing areas.

However, sources said this need is not as pressing today.

Reach Formal Agreement On Boundary Extension

Seven-Stage Plan Will Be Followed

By BARRY JOHNSON
Daily Courier Staff Writer

The complex structure of the procedure that will be followed in an attempt to extend Kelowna's municipal boundaries was revealed Wednesday.

Final and formal agreement to the plan was reached when the boundary extension committee moved to adopt it after about four years of careful planning and revision. Chairman of the committee, Kelowna alderman Arthur Jackson, says there is no shortcut.

Here is the seven-stage plan finally evolved:

Petitions will be required from the areas the committee proposes to include in the new City of Kelowna. They will be petitions requesting that the areas be allowed to join the city.

The petitions must have signatures of at least 50 per cent of all resident landowners.

Pandory. Petition B, is Five Bridges and part of a rural area east of Birch Road and north of the highway.

The inclusion of Glenmore in the new city will be on the basis of a vote of owner-electors taken in Glenmore.

This vote will probably be on the same day as a four-point ballot in Kelowna.

Four Separate Ballots

The Kelowna franchise will be made up of four separate ballots agreeing to:

(1) Accept Petition A—that is approve the amalgamation with the city of the area of Petition A;

(2) Accept Petition B;

(3) Accept an extension into the Knox Mountain area. No petition will be required from this area as there are no residents of the parkland;

(4) Amalgamation with the municipality of Glenmore. If the votes are favorable an application will be made at this time for new letters patent legalizing the new city.

After the three weeks to a month required for these to be processed in Victoria, the new city will be a legal entity—a new city, actually.

But the new city will include North Glenmore.

Members of the committee, which includes residents of Glenmore, North Glenmore and Kelowna, agreed this would be advantageous to neither North Glenmore or the new city.

Therefore, a petition, circulated at the same time as petitions A and B, will be revitalized. This is a petition asking approval of the voters of the new city to North Glenmore's leaving the city and reverting to an unorganized territory.

North Glenmore Key

The secession of North Glenmore will require a vote. The vote will require that a voters' list of the new city be drawn up.

This is the riskiest part of the scheme. If the voters turn down North Glenmore's application the city is stuck with a farming area and the farming area is stuck with the city.

The committee is quick with assurances, however, that the risk is not great that the citizens of the new city will not permit the area to withdraw.

Assuming success at this stage,

there is now the second "new city."

New letters patent will again have to be applied for. When they are granted, the job is finished.

The city's area will have increased from 1,525 acres to a total of 3,486 acres. An accurate figure on the population increase is not yet available.

Vernon Group To "Clear Air"

VERNON (Staff) — The effect of increased assessment on pensioners and a progress report by the city sewage committee will head the agenda of a meeting of the Ratepayers' Association here March 24.

"We want the situation aired regarding assessment," president William Hallina told The Daily Courier today.

A two-man committee was appointed recently to establish whether the responsibility for the increase lies with the civic or provincial government.

"It seems to be a provincial matter," Mr. Hallina said. "But we want to clear the matter up."

Alderman Frank Vlahar will report to the Association on progress to date by the special sewage committee, set up by city council earlier this year.

This month has been set aside for a membership drive by the group.

A statement by the association dealing with recruiting of new members said: "If we are to maintain our influence in this highly-organized society, and if we are to provide proper and healthy leadership, our membership must be enlarged."

Tremors Felt In Peru, Italy

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Earthquake-plagued Arequipa in southern Peru was rocked by three more violent tremors Wednesday night. Early reports said one person died of a heart attack and 20 persons were injured.

The shocks disrupted power and water service, toppled cornices from downtown buildings and sent frightened residents streaming into the streets.

FOGGIA, Italy (Reuters)—Panic-stricken citizens ran out into the streets here when a mild earth tremor shook this southern Italian town during the night. No one was hurt, and no damage reported.

Parents Watch Pupils On TV In Unique Test

By MEINHART LAGIES

The parents settled back in their projects while parents toured the school.

Parents were welcomed in the auditorium by Robert DeHart, president of the students' council. The Grade 7 band and the combined Grade 8 and 9 orchestra put on a short musical program.

Principal F. C. Bunce urged parents to co-operate with the school and offered suggestions on how they could encourage and help their children with studies at home.

The senior high school open house will start at 7:30 tonight. The Y-Teens will serve tea in the lunch room. All available teachers will attend.

During the first three days of the week, indications pointed to a record attendance of parents at open houses.

Average attendance was one parent for every pupil.

"The general attendance so far has been outstanding," Mr. Bissell told The Courier.

Others were busy on their projects while parents toured the school.

Gov't Won't Interfere In Hanging

OTTAWA (CP) — The cabinet will not interfere with the execution tonight in Montreal's Bordeaux Jail of Ernest Cote, 37, of North Bay, Ont., convicted Nov. 14 at Hull, Que., of the shooting murder of Alexandre Heron, Timiskaming, Que., bank manager.

An announcement from the office of Solicitor-General Balcer said the jury which convicted Cote made no recommendation for mercy. There also was no appeal by Cote against the death sentence.

Cote will be hanged before the Commons completes debate on a private member's bill to abolish the death penalty for murder.

DEBATE POSTPONED
Debate on the bill, introduced in the Commons by Frank McGee, Progressive Conservative member for York-Scarborough, was adjourned indefinitely Feb. 25. There is no indication as yet when debate will be resumed.

Salmon Arm Girls Lose Hoop Opener
VANCOUVER (CP) — West Vancouver led all the way to defeat Salmon Arm 41-33 today in the opening game of the B.C. Hospitals Girls' Basketball tournament.

The three-day tournament opened with eight games scheduled for each day and the finals set for Saturday night.

Jack The Giant Killer Busts Curling Wide Open

FORT WILLIAM (CP) — A spunky little shotmaker from Kingston, Ont., threw the race for the 1960 Canadian curling championship wide open today as he whipped previously-unbeaten Saskatchewan rink 11-6 on the seventh round of the 11-draw competition.

Jack Edwards, a 38-year-old auto sales company owner, came through with several brilliant shots as he scored his fifth victory in six games to pull within a half game of the defending champion Richardsons from Regina. The Saskatchewan quartet, which hasn't had its bye yet in the 11-rink playoff, still remains in first place with its record of six wins and one loss.

But Edwards still has a tough race to hoe as he meets Manitoba's Mac Scales this afternoon and then plays unpredictable Quebec tonight on the ninth round.

Scales kept pace with Ontario when he scored an extra-end 10-9 victory over British Columbia's Glen Harper for his fifth triumph in six starts.

CHIMP-LIKE CREATURE PHOTOGRAPHED

Hairy "Monster" Is Real

BLANTYRE, Nyasaland (Reuters)—A game ranger today gave new information on the uplift, a mysterious forest creature found in Nyasaland's northern province.

Ranger Oscar Carey returned from an expedition to investigate the hairy "monsters" which have puzzled game experts and zoologists since one was spotted near the northern town of Nkuta Bay last month.

Carey spent days observing the shy creature in a mountain fastness seldom penetrated by humans. He photographed the uplift on 45 feet of movie film but had not finished processing it when he spoke to reporters here today.

The uplift, Carey said, resembles a chimpanzee but has a bald head, high cheekbones and a man-like foot.

One reason the uplift became known to white settlers only recently is that local Africans feared the creature and refused to help look for it.

Negroes have told of a half-human, half-animal tribe ranging the northern forests. They said the creatures were humans who revealed witchcraft secrets and were transformed and banished to the dense forest on Kankoli Mountain by a powerful witch doctor.

The uplift is "definitely not a gorilla," Carey said. "Its nearest resemblance is to that of a chimpanzee, but I have observed six points of physical difference."

IS DIFFERENT
The creature spends more time in trees than a gorilla. Its habits are more like that of a chimpanzee, but the nearest colony of chimpanzees is 600 miles away in Tanganyika, he said.

The uplift sometimes walks upright and also travels on all fours. Its hind footprint measures 9½ inches from heel to toe.

LOOKING FOR A JOB? Then cast your eyes on the other side of the pond. E. A. Robinson, 1331 St. Paul St., read our editorial the other night regarding unemployment insurance and the fact that the federal government acted with full justification in denying jobless benefits to 125 men who had refused to accept new positions. MR. ROBINSON brought in a copy of the London Evening News and showed us the "Situations Vacant" listings. Believe it or not there were a total of 165 column inches of classified ads from employers seeking help. Listings included professional men right down to the candlestick maker.

A LOCAL RETAILER dropped in the other day and charged there was a racket going on in the city regarding American currency. It might have been coincidental, but he produced a fistful of U.S. silver which he claimed had been taken in by his clerks that morning.

OUR EARS PRICKED UP when he made this observation, so we did a bit of checking. If there is such a racket, the banks are unaware of it. Our informant charged the powerful money barons were offering double discount rate on silver to save the expense of shipping it back across the border. "Taint so. If you went to the bank and wanted to buy $50 worth of U.S. silver, you would probably get a 6½ per cent premium; on paper money, 4½ per cent. But the catch is the banks don't keep large amounts of silver on hand.

OUR SURVEY DISCLOSED local banks are accepting at par value, American money which may be mixed with Canadian silver, but this is later sorted out by tellers. Conversely, if you wanted—say $50 in five, 10, 25 and 50 cent pieces, you would get that in Canadian currency.

OF COURSE ANYONE planning a trip to Uncle Sam's country would benefit exchange-wise if he picked up American cart-wheels or smaller denominations of silver at discount rate. The car springs may be weighed down somewhat, but he could exchange the silver for paper currency once across the border, thereby reaping the 6½ per cent premium. But once again there's few U.S. $1.00 silver pieces in circulation in these parts. In fact the only place they're in abundance in the states is at the gambling casinos where slot machines are still legal.

ONE OF MY PET BEEFS... When a TV program director keeps butting in after inviting a guest on his program. Said guest doesn't get an opportunity to put his point over. Give the guy a chance Ray. Tuesday's effort was a case in point.

MISS SYBIL CONERY, executive secretary-treasurer of the B.C. branch of the Save the Children Fund, dropped us a line the other day, appealing for help. The letter speaks for itself.

"... I find I am only writing to many of my friends when disaster strikes—and here I am writing you in the midst of one of the worst.

"The B.C. branch of the SCF is asking for aid throughout B.C. for the children who have been left destitute and injured in the dreadful earthquake in Agadir, Morocco. Our headquarters in London is flying in supplies. Mr. Basil McTaggart, administrator of our work in Austria for the past 15 years and the man who set up the reception centres along the Austro-Hungarian border during the Hungarian uprising, has been sent to assist in distributing help and in the job of rehabilitating. The need is very urgent. And the plight of the children most pitiful. In African cities almost half of the population is made up of children—so you can imagine how great is their need.

"Donations should be sent to the Save the Children Fund, room 11, 817 Granville St., Vancouver and marked Moroccan Earthquake Fund. Receipts are deductible from income tax."

MISS CONERY HAS visited Kelowna on numerous occasions. We recall several local residents sent a Christmas donation to the Fund the last time we mentioned this worthwhile organization. Incidentally, Lieut.-Governor Frank MacKenzie Ross is one of the patrons and honorary president is Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie.

UNDERSTAND THAT'S A rootbeer and hamburger eatery that's going up on South Pandosy St. They hope to have it open in time to catch the early spring trade. WE'RE STILL BLUSHING... Friend Archdeacon (Personally Speaking) Catchpole dropped out to the house Tuesday afternoon to pay a visit to the better half and her father. That Golden Lab of ours—he's almost the size of a bull elephant—was half-doing on the floor. But being of the friendly type, he purrs right up to our visitor, his large tail wagging furiously against the minister's dark suit. And less than half an hour before coming home I had been reading his column "Hark! Hark! The Dogs Do Bark!" Oh me!

Calgary Funeral For Mary Dobbin Ex-Westbanker

WESTBANK — Funeral rites were held in Calgary Tuesday for Mary Jane Dobbin, a resident of Westbank for 45 years, who died in the Alberta city Friday. Just five weeks after the death of her youngest son, F. A. Dobbin, at Westbank.

Flying to Calgary to attend the funeral were Miss Dobbin's nephew, Lorne Dobbin, of Westbank, and a niece, Mary, Mrs. Cyril White of Vancouver. Born at Bracebridge, Ontario, in 1878, Miss Dobbin came west with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbin, first to Morris, Man. and then to Calgary. Mr. Dobbin came to Westbank in 1906 and Mrs. and Miss Dobbin followed in 1907.

After the death of her mother in 1924, Miss Dobbin established a general store in Westbank which she operated for about 20 years. Selling it, she kept the adjoining cottage and two lots where she lived.

About five years ago she returned to Calgary, where she had always wanted to live. Besides numerous nieces and nephews, Miss Dobbin is survived by one sister, Mrs. G. W. Watts, Vancouver.

Reports "Slight Improvement" In United States Apple Market
A slight improvement was shown in sales of Okanagan apples to U.S. markets, B.C. Tree Fruits Limited reported today.

Tree Fruits has sold a number of cars of Cee Delicious to the southern states but demand is restricted. Some eastern markets are beginning to show an interest in Winesaps.

The main interest at the present time is in controlled atmosphere apples now coming out of storage. Controlled atmosphere from Michigan, Pennsylvania and New York State are in "good supply" and selling at reasonable prices, said the agency.

They range from $3.25 to $3.75 for the best Cel Packs. The best C.A. apples from the New England states are said somewhat higher.

Top Peace Role Canadian Says Wire Service Chief

Canada can play a huge part in the role of preserving world peace, the Canadian Club of Kelowna was told Wednesday night by a man of much knowledge on international affairs. Charles Lynch, Chief of Southam News Services told some 75 members of the local group that "Canada can wield an influence for peace greater than any other nation in the world, large or small."

However, Mr. Lynch said, "If we fail to use that influence to the fullest possible extent, we shall be failing not only ourselves but the whole of mankind."

Lynch had high praise for Hon. Howard Green "For the tremendous start he has made as our External Affairs minister."

Lighting And Centre Rd. Farmer Institute Topics

WINFIELD — The regular monthly meeting of the Farmers' Institute was held in the club room of the memorial hall with 16 members present.

A report on street lighting was presented by the committee: Alec Green, Carl Honl and Harold Marshall. They will continue to gather information and plan to attend meetings of other organizations to explain the lighting situation and assess public feeling on the matter.

A letter was read from A. Beasley again giving the institute permission to use his property on Woods Lake as a community beach.

On the beach committee are Ross McDonagh, Pete Rodall and Paul Weir.

A motion was passed to request inclusion of the institute disposal grounds in the fire district.

WANT NAME CHANGE
The institute will act to change the name of the south part of Okanagan Centre Road. The street forms an almost complete circle from Al's Cafe here to Okanagan Centre and back to the Beaver Lake corner.

Concern was expressed that this is misleading to visitors to the district. A list of beauty spots is to be compiled by the secretary and it is hoped to have signs depicting them for the use of tourists. A scenic drive is also planned.

Let The Nation's Voters Decide On Death Penalty

The attention of the Canadian public is being sharply focussed upon the issue of capital punishment—as to whether it is right or wrong for the state to impose the death penalty upon persons proven guilty of murder. Sentiment is running high and it may be difficult for us to weigh the question without a preponderance of emotional feeling.

For years the issue has been kicked back and forth in Parliament and finally shelved for the next sitting of Commons without a vote being taken. At present there is every indication that the private bill currently under debate will meet the same fate.

In our opinion the Okanagan Labor Council seems to have come up with the right solution which will end the controversy once and for all. Representatives of the Kelowna-Penticton-Vernon labor groups recently went on record asking that the question of abolition of capital punishment be placed before the nation's voters. The resolution will be presented at the 1960 convention of the Canadian Labor Congress to be held in Montreal in April.

Never has public opinion moved so far in the direction of abolition as it is moving now. Excellent speeches have been made in the House by both sides, especially by lawyers who gained fame as defence counsel in murder trials. But the retentionists have not supplied answers to the simplest questions.

Why is it that murder rates have not leaped up in countries where capital punishment has been abolished? The weight of evidence adduced in this debate shows that murder rates fluctuate in accordance with social conditions, not with the presence or absence of the death penalty. Then why is it needed?

If the death sentence is not the only or the most effective deterrent to murder, then it is indeed a needless taking of life.

What may come eventually is a modification of the law, giving trial judges greater leeway in passing sentence. Today, a conviction for murder carries a mandatory sentence of death, which in the majority of cases in recent years has been commuted to life imprisonment.

Such a change giving a judge more latitude would meet with greater public support than the present law.

But we still think the nation's voters should make the final decision and a country-wide plebiscite seems to be the answer. Wording of the plebiscite could be along these lines: (A) Are you in favor of abolition of capital punishment? and (B) Do you think trial judges should be given greater leeway in passing sentence?

Alberta Still Battles DST

Daylight Saving Time will shortly be with us again, but our neighbors east of the Rockies are still bantering the issue back and forth.

However, the Calgary Junior Chamber of Commerce is endeavoring to force the government's hand. The Alberta government continues year after year to turn its deaf ear to urban pleadings for daylight saving time.

The Calgary Jaycees plan publishing a ballot in the Herald on March 19 to ascertain the public's wishes on fast time. While the unofficial vote thus conducted by the Jaycees will not in itself determine whether or not Alberta is to have summer time, it will not be without effect. Governments have to bow to the wishes of the majority. This was demonstrated in Alberta a little over a year ago when the majority wanted mixed drinking and cocktail lounges in metropolitan centres.

Several years ago the B.C. government placed the issue squarely before the electorate in the form of a plebiscite and the people of this province went on record favoring Daylight Saving Time by an overwhelming majority. Since then we automatically move our clocks ahead one hour the latter part of April.

It seems that the chief objections in Alberta to having DST come from the rural parts of the province. They contain less than half Alberta's population but they boast more than half the province's MLAs because constituencies are based on geography instead of population. So it is not difficult to see why the government is against daylight saving time.

The Calgary Herald points out:

"The arguments in favor of daylight saving time are familiar to everyone, or should be by this time. One of the principal ones is that it is extremely inconvenient during several months of the year for the people of Alberta to be out of joint in the matter of time with the rest of Canada. And in a northern climate it is only reasonable that people should wish to benefit to the maximum possible extent from summer sunlight as an offset to the long winter nights and short winter days.

"Here is a chance for the city people to speak up loudly. It is the squeaking wheel which gets the grease."

Over 53,000,000 British People Under Health Plan

By M. McINTYRE HOOD
Special to The Daily Courier

This is the second of a series of four articles dealing with Great Britain's National Health Service.

LONDON — Approximately 53,000,000 in England, Scotland, North Ireland and Wales can secure under the National Health Service, everything they may need in the way of medical attention, hospital treatment, care of specialists and dental and ophthalmic treatment without costs. That is qualified only by the small charges which are made for doctors' prescriptions, dentures, eye-glasses and certain surgical appliances. It is a comprehensive service, providing all forms of medical advice, surgery, care, hospital and specialist treatment as well as a family doctor—and it does not depend upon insurance qualifications.

FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Under the scheme, there is complete freedom of choice for both patient and doctor. The patient chooses his doctor, but the doctor in his turn in rare cases may refuse to take a person on his list. One reason for this is that no doctor is allowed to accept more than 3,500 patients, so it may be that a second choice may have to be made. A patient may change his doctor if he wishes, either at once if he has changed his address or has obtained permission of the doctor on whose list he is, or by informing the local executive council, in which case a delay of about 14 days is usual. All of the services rendered by the family doctor with whom the patient is listed are provided free of charge. This covers everything, even in the field of mental health.

In the event of a patient requiring hospital treatment, he will be admitted to hospital on the request of his doctor. All hospital treatment, including surgical operations, the services of specialists and the advice of consultants is provided free, except in the case of accommodation being desired in private wards. Outpatients pay the nominal charge of one shilling for prescriptions, and the required charges for dentures, eye-glasses and certain other appliances.

All appliances which are medically necessary are provided, although there are nominal charges for elastic hosiery, surgical abdominal supports, surgical footwear and wigs.

This places at the disposal of every patient the best medical advice possible. All specialists devote part of their time to work in the hospitals, for which there is no charge to the patient. This applies to even the most eminent of the Harley street specialists. Thus even the poorest of individuals can have the benefit of the same medical skill as the most wealthy.

DENTAL TREATMENT

Everyone is entitled to free dental treatment. Since May, 1951, however, a charge has been made for the supply of dentures. There is on this, however, a maximum charge of £4. 15s for full upper and lower dentures, (about $12.75). Dental examinations are free, but for an extended course of dental treatment, except for those under-21 and expectant mothers, there is a charge of one pound ($2.70).

All ophthalmic services are available free to everyone. Sight testing is free, but there is a charge for glasses of one pound ($2.70) per pair, plus the actual cost of the frames. Glasses, however, are still entirely free for children under 16 and also for older children attending school full time.

Hearing aids, batteries and maintenance are provided free for those who, in the opinion of a specialist, would benefit from them. Ambulance services, which are provided by the local authorities, are free.

All medicines and a range of appliances suitable for home treatment prescribed by a doctor are supplied without cost or limitation other than a charge of one shilling (14 cents) for each item on a prescription form, and a charge of five shillings or 10 shillings when elastic hosiery is prescribed.

All mental hospitals and institutions, except some run for private profit, have been taken over by regional hospital boards, and accommodation and treatment are free. As the services provided both for the mental and physical well-being of the community, much closer co-ordination is possible.

LOCAL SERVICES

A great variety of other services is available to the public, free of charge, through the local health services. There are 140 health authorities in England and Wales. They provide such services as midwifery, ante-natal, post-natal and infant welfare clinics, special dental services, health visiting, home nursing, ambulances, provision of domestic help on health grounds, special care and after-care of the sick, local mental health services and also vaccination and immunization. All of these services are free except for domestic help, and, in certain cases, provision of residential accommodation, meals, nursing requisites and bedding for which a charge may be made according to means.

RUSH ON DOCTORS

In the early days of the National Health Service, there were complaints that patients were not getting proper treatment because of the large number of patients on each doctor's list. I have been informed by an official source that it was true at the beginning that there was a rush on both doctors' and dentists' surgeries as well as to hospitals. This had been expected as many people who could not afford treatment before the service started were now getting it for the first time. In some instances, however, these long lists have been overcome, and doctors are well able to give full and proper care to their patients. In addition, some 30,000 more hospital beds have been provided, and the total nursing staff has increased by 27,000 fulltime and 18,000 part time.

One of the most telling facts pointing to the success of the National Health Service is that about 97 per cent of the population have chosen a doctor within the service. On the other hand, practically all the doctors, dentists, ophthalmic and specialist have joined it, so that for the first time, a great many people are receiving every medical care. These facts speak for themselves.

(The next article will deal with the National Health Service from the standpoint of the medical, dental and ophthalmic professions.)

deGaulle Made Two Other Trips To Canada In '40's

By JACK BEST
Canadian Press Staff Writer

OTTAWA (CP) — The Canadian visit of France's President Charles de Gaulle in April recalls two brief trips he made here during the Second World War and in the first dizzy days of victory.

As head of the French Committee of National Liberation, he came here July 11, 1944, and stayed overnight before going on to Montreal and Quebec City for short visits.

That was little more than a month after D-Day and a few weeks before the liberation of Paris.

In 1945, as provisional president of the Fourth Republic, he was here Aug. 28-29, accompanied by Foreign Minister Georges Bidault and Gen. Alphonse Juin.

Earlier that month, Japan had surrendered, ending the war in the Pacific. The war in Europe had ended in May.

VISITS FOUR CITIES

President de Gaulle, accompanied by Mme. de Gaulle, will arrive here April 19, according to tentative plans, and remain until early April 21. Before going on to Washington late April 22, he will also make calls at Quebec City, Montreal and Toronto, but the sequence has not been worked out.

While in Ottawa, they are expected to stay with Governor-General and Mme. Vanier at Government House. President de Gaulle stayed at the vice-regal residence on both his previous visits, as a guest of the then governor-general, Lord Athlone, and Princess Alice.

President de Gaulle and Gen. Vanier are old friends. In 1943 and 1944 Gen. Vanier was Canadian representative to de Gaulle's Free French movement, first in London and later in Algiers.

Twelve days after Paris was liberated, Gen. Vanier was back as ambassador in the capital which he and other Allied diplomats had left seven years earlier. He had been minister at the time Hitler's armies overran France. He was the first foreign diplomat to get back in business in the French capital.

For three years until de Gaulle's abrupt departure from the political scene in 1946 he and Gen. Vanier were associated with each other, and a warm friendship developed.

Gen. Vanier speaks with admiration of the French leader. "He does not want to become a dictator, as many people say," Gen. Vanier once declared. "He knows the French people too well and he knows they will not stand for it. He is a very great patriot."

Gen. de Gaulle knows here include Liberal leader Lester Pearson, who was at Canada House in London during the war; Norman Robertson, under-secretary for external affairs and former high commissioner in London; and Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, former Canadian military commander.

Gen. McNaughton, now chairman of the Canadian section of the International Joint Commission, recalls that Gen. de Gaulle, previously, "was a Corps headquarters with Winston Churchill sev-

"We had a friendly relationship," he said. "We gave the Free French access to our schools. There weren't too many French-speaking personnel other than ours in England at the time, and we had a number of his people in our schools."

"Later of course his relations were on a higher level than I usually operated in. But I have several of his books, some with his signature."

OTTAWA REPORT

Drysedale Bill More Popular

By PATRICK NICHOLSON

A second degree of murder, punishable by life imprisonment instead of by execution, seems likely to be recognized under our criminal code, as the result of the debate on capital punishment which has recently been carried on inside our House of Commons and outside it.

There are now three private member's bills on this subject before the House.

The best of these was introduced by John Drysdale, a 33-year-old Conservative backbencher, who is a Vancouver lawyer. His proposal would exclude from the death penalty those killings usually referred to as crimes of passion; but it would retain execution in cases where a murder is committed during a theft, or as the result of using an offensive weapon, or where the victim is a policeman or prison guard. The Drysdale Bill, which has many supporters in the House, would also substitute the gas chamber for the hangman's noose as the means of execution.

EASY ON UNSOUND MINDS

Mr. Deschatelets, another lawyer, who has been a Liberal MP for six years, introduced a bill which would permit a judge in his discretion to sentence a convicted murderer either to death or to life imprisonment.

Finally, there is the McGee Bill, which would abolish the death penalty except for treason. This soft-hearted nonsense towards the cold-blooded killer and the criminal murderer has not attracted substantial support, either in Parliament or across the country. Debate in Parliament and coffee shop chatter suggest that less than one quarter of the House would support total abolition, but about three quarters would support leniency to those who kill under emotional stress or while of unsound mind.

While letters, petitions, and even threats have sought Parliamentary support for or against capital punishment, it seems that feeling across the country certainly does not run as high as some of these almost hysterical "lobbies"; especially in country areas, there is solid citizen belief in the death sentence for "tough" killers.

Against this background, many MPs do not want to have to vote "yes" or "no" on the unpromising proposal for total abolition of the death penalty.

For this reason, and also to end the uncertainty which has surrounded the fate of convicted murderers since the Conservative government came into power, it is possible that the cabinet may introduce a motion to amend the criminal code, recognizing this second-degree or unpremeditated murder, and providing as punishment life imprisonment without remission. For first-degree murders, this motion may substitute eight years.

Since it took office 32 months ago, the Conservative government has commuted 33 out of 40 death sentences submitted to it for review. In many of these cases, the jury did not even make a recommendation to mercy. But the pattern tends to be one of mercy towards the unintentional murderer, including both the passion killer and, surprisingly, the killer engaged in another crime.

As one correspondent, Miss Susan Forham of Halifax, N.S., points out to me, we hear a lot of sympathy for the "poor" criminal who has to pay for his crime; but we never hear sympathy for the slaughtered victim or the victim's unhappy family. Maybe a thought for the innocent party, who gets accidentally or unpremeditatedly shot during a bank holdup or armed robbery, will suggest that the death penalty should certainly be retained for the person who kills while committing another crime.

Rampaging Richardsons Meet Stiff Competition

By AL VICKERY
Canadian Press Staff Writer

FORT WILLIAM (CP)—A 28-year-old owner of a motor sales company in Kingston is considered to be the only tough hurdle the rampaging Richardson rink must clear in its quest for a second straight Canadian curling championship for Saskatchewan.

Jack L. (Jake) Edwards, representing Ontario, faces unbeaten Ernie Richardson and his Saskatchewan mates in the seventh round today in the 11-round championship competition. The competing rinks face a grueling schedule as two more draws also will be held today—at 3 p.m. and 8 p.m. EST.

Ernie, along with brother Garret and cousin Wes and Arnold, rolled to a sixth consecutive victory Wednesday night with a hard-fought 12-5 decision over British Columbia's Glen Harper.

FOURTH STRAIGHT
Edwards, who also has beaten B.C. scored his fourth straight victory after a first-round loss, by defeating Ian Baird of Nova Scotia 10-7 in fairly easy fashion. Ontario had a bye on the third round. Saskatchewan gets its bye on the final draw Friday afternoon.

Manitoba's Mac Scales, who hasn't lost since he was trimmed 17-5 by the Richardsons on the opening draw Monday, also won his fourth straight after drawing the second-round bye. Scales defeated Stu Beagle of Alberta 11-7 on the sixth draw.

Although only Edwards and Scales are given any hopes of catching the sharp-shooting Richardsons, only two rinks—Northern Ontario and Newfoundland—have been mathematically eliminated.

STEADY LOSERS
Sudbury's Don Groom last lost all five of his matches, while David Lyon of Goose Bay, Labrador, representing Newfoundland, has dropped five of his six games.

Wednesday night, Lyon fell 10-8 to New Brunswick's Harold Mabey, and Groom was beaten 11-6 by Ted Hunt of Quebec. It was Mabey's first win after four straight losses. Hunt now has won half of his six games.

Doug Cameron of Prince Edward Island, with a 2-3 record, had the night bye.

Harper and his B.C. rink were in contention against Saskatchewan for 11 ends. The west coast foursome was down only 9-8 after scoring a single on the 11th, but was no match for the Richardsons on the final end.

Showing the same deadly accuracy they had displayed whenever threatened during earlier games, the Richardsons protected an early house on the 12th and forced Harper to try a difficult freeze on his final stone for a tie. The B.C. skip found the pressure too tough and his rock sailed through the house past two counting Saskatchewan stones. Skip Ernie calmly drew in for three and the game.

MANITOBA RALLY
Manitoba had to come from behind to whip Alberta. Down 7-6 on the ninth, Scales deadlocked the count on the 10th. The Manitoba rink scored two on the 11th to put Beagle under the gun. The Calgary shotmaker was not equal to the occasion and he dropped two more points on the final end.

Baird of Nova Scotia was no match for Edwards after the fourth skip connected for a four-count on the fourth end. Edwards played it close to the vest the remainder of the game and was never out of command.

On the fifth draw in the afternoon, Alberta suffered its first defeat when Beagle was defeated 8-4 by the Richardsons. The game, which produced three straight blank ends, was close until the Saskatchewan smoothies took a 4-2 lead on the seventh. It was all Richardsons' the rest of the way.

On the afternoon matches, Manitoba beat Quebec 8-5. Ontario downed Newfoundland 13-9. F.E.I. edged Northern Ontario 7-6, and B.C. defeated Nova Scotia 8-5.

Hawks Move To Third Spot After Tying Rangers 1-1

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Bare-faced or masked, Jacques Plante will come face to face with his arch-rival in Montreal Saturday night in the next stage of the toughest Vezina Trophy battle he has had to fight in five seasons.

Glenn Hall, durable and determined, was superb in the Chicago nets Wednesday night as the Black Hawks and Rangers played to a 1-1 National Hockey League tie in New York. The tie pushed the Hawks into third place, one point ahead of Detroit.

The same could not be said for Plante, who re-donned his mask and gave an unimpressive performance although Montreal Canadiens went on another scoring rampage, trouncing Toronto Maple Leafs 9-4.

Canadiens had plenty of cause for jubilation.

It was their first road victory in five games, several big stars fattened their scoring records and the team gave its sharpest offensive display in several weeks.

PLANTE LOSING LEAD
A less joyous event was the fact that those four Toronto goals sliced Plante's margin over Hall to one goal.

At mid-season Plante, seeking a fifth consecutive Vezina Trophy, had allowed 26 fewer goals than Hall and as late as a month ago he was still more than 20 goals ahead.

Hall turned aside 39 New York shots Wednesday night. He was beaten only when Andy Bathgate banged home his own 30-foot rebound in the second period.

Hall was not the only goaltending hero, however, for nobody has proved yet that Rangers' new netminder Jack McCartan does not belong in the National Hockey League. McCartan, hero of the recent U.S. Olympic hockey victory, stopped 26 shots in the second game of his five-game trial with the Rangers.

Black Hawks tied the game early in the third period when Tod Sloan's drive rolled under McCartan's leg.

Jean Beliveau got his 33rd goal and two assists and Maurice (Rocket) Richard recorded two goals and an assist.

Other Canadian goals were scored by Andre Pronovost, Don Marshall, who got his fourth in the last four games, and defenseman Tom Johnson.

George Armstrong, with two goals, Bert Olmstead and Red Kelly were Leafs' marksmen.

The win boosted Canadiens' lead over the second-place Leafs to 18 points. They have already clinched their third straight NHL title.

PACKERS MUST SKATE HARD TO DEADLOCK OSHL FINALS

Kelowna Packers will attempt to re-tie the Okanagan Senior Hockey League finals tonight when they meet Vernon Canadians in Memorial Arena.

A win for the Canadians, who lead the best-of-seven series 2-1, would put the Packers in an awkward position, particularly with the fifth game being played in Vernon.

However, should Packers win tonight, the series will still be a tough one to forecast.

According to Kelowna coach Jack O'Reilly the red and whites must play more offensive hockey rather than concentrate on a strong defence.

"If we skate hard we can beat them. We didn't skate Tuesday night," said O'Reilly.

Big Celebration For Heggveit

OTTAWA (CP)—All Ottawa was ready today with roses, red carpets, parades and speeches for the homecoming of Anne Heggveit.

The Olympic skiing champion was scheduled to arrive at Up-lands Airport in the early afternoon on a flight from New York.

Airport greeters were to include George Nelms, Immigration Minister Fairclough and any other well-wishers caught up in the carnival spirit of her return.

Six bands were lined up for the parade that will escort the Ottawa girl into the city centre, with Anne riding a high float—Ottawa's Grey Cup parade float converted.

Organizers had office workers armed with ticker tape, got school children a holiday and even arranged to travel the wrong way on Ottawa's one-way main street—Sparks Street.

FM TO ATTEND
Anne Heggveit Day, as proclaimed by the mayor, will be crowned by an evening banquet that will be attended by Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

Miss Heggveit, who won the Olympic slalom gold medal at Squaw Valley, Calif., announced her retirement from competitive skiing last week.

Anne, a 21-year-old blonde, began skiing at the age of two. She overcame a broken ankle in 1955-56 and added obstacles just before this year's Winter Olympics to reach the top and give Canada the gold medal.

Her father, her father, was Canadian cross-country ski champion in 1934 and missed his own chance at the Olympics because he couldn't raise the money to go.

Yvon Durelle In Demand

MONCTON, N.B. (CP)—Despite his retirement from boxing, Yvon Durelle, former Canadian and British Empire light-heavyweight champion, is still in demand.

Chris Shaban, who managed Durelle, announced Wednesday night that the Bute St. Anne boxer-fisherman will attend sports dinners at St. John's, Nfld., March 16; at Fort William, Ont., March 17; and at Winnipeg, where he will be guest speaker, April 16.

Top Money Man

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP)—Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., continues to hold top-money spot in the Professional Golfers' Association standings for 1960.

Palmer has won $22,200 in nine tournaments. He took first place in three of the events.

PGA standings released today show Jack Fleck of Los Angeles second with $11,500 in eight tournaments. Bob Goody of Crystal River, Fla., who entered nine tournaments, is third with $10,800.

Netminder McCartan Gets Opinions Of NHL Experts

NEW YORK (AP)—Any myths about the contending abilities of Olympic star Jack McCartan are rapidly being dispelled and some expert opinions are taking their place.

Toronto Calls Ed Chadwick

TORONTO (CP)—Toronto Maple Leafs, taking stock after Wednesday night's 9-4 clobbering at the hands of Montreal Canadiens, have decided to call up goalie Ed Chadwick from Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League to replace Johnny Bower Saturday.

They also called up Rochester defenseman Joe Crozier to stand by in case Bob Baun, who suffered a knee injury in the first period Wednesday night, can't play against New York Saturday.

Dies In Florida

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Arnold Johnson, 53, hard-driving Chicago business tycoon, who moved the Athletics baseball club from Philadelphia to Kansas City and made it a financial success, died early today.

The club president suffered a cerebral hemorrhage while driving Wednesday after watching an intra-squad game at the Athletics' spring training camp here.

His wife, Carman, was with him when he died in hospital.

McCartan led the United States to victory in the recent Olympic hockey championships. He now is toiling on trial for the last-place New York Rangers of the National Hockey League.

"I like the way he handles himself," netminder Glenn Hall of Chicago Black Hawks said Wednesday night after McCartan held the Hawks to a 1-1 tie.

"I particularly like the way he uses his right skate to block shots. That shows some class. All and all, I think he handles himself real well."

STOPPED HULL
McCartan, who had 22 saves as the Rangers beat Detroit 3-1 Sunday, came up with 26 Wednesday night, including four spectacular ones against Bobby Hull, the league's leading scorer.

Ranger general manager Muzz Patrick was pleased with McCartan, 24-year-old native of St. Paul, Minn., on leave from the army to try his hand at big-time hockey.

"I thought he performed even better than he did against Detroit," Patrick said. "He made some really great saves."

Couch Alf Pike agreed. "Actually, he even surprised me a bit," McCartan said. "Things were just the same as the other night. Those guys in front of me still made it easy with the way they played."

McCartan will not play out-of-town games for the Rangers. His next assignment probably will be Sunday against the second-place Toronto Maple Leafs.

Rossland Thumps Trail 10-6 To Keep Playoff Hopes Alive

TRAIL (CP)—Rossland Warriors kept alive their slim playoff hopes here Wednesday night, thumping Trail Smoke Eaters 10-6 before 634 fans in a Western International Hockey League round-robin semi-final series game.

Warriors, however, must win their two remaining semi-final matches to enter the best-of-five league final against Trail which opens here next Monday.

Trail leads the series with 13 points, followed by Nelson with eight and Warriors with five.

The league winner meets the Okanagan Senior League champion in the B.C. Senior A hockey final, starting March 21 in the home of the OSHL champion.

SCORES SHORTHANDED
Lennard scored his first goal while his team was shorthanded but Secco broke loose to regain Warriors' two-goal margin before the period ended.

Lennard and Turnbull pulled Trail even in the first five minutes of the second period. Conn restored the lead for Rossland a minute later with Hockley again bringing Trail abreast of Rossland at the 12 minute mark of the period.

Ferguson, with two, and Jones put Warriors ahead to stay.

Ferguson made it 9-5 on a long shot to open the last period with Turk counting Trail's final tally at 12-6. Jones ended the scoring at 16:38.

The Rutland Seventh Day Adventist Church was prettily decorated on Sunday, for the wedding of Cornelia Joan Lemky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Lemky, R.R.3, Kelowna, and Gilbert J. Pierson.

The bride was given away by her father, and looked charming in a tulle and lace satin full-length gown, with an orange blossom headpiece from which flowed her finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of red roses and lily-of-the-valley. Attending the bride were Kathy Justina and Esther Lemky, dressed in medium-blue brocaded taffeta afternoon length gowns, carrying bouquets of pink roses. The flower girl was Beverly Lemky, in a dress of pastel pink chiffon over satin, who carried a basket of pink roses.

Following the afternoon ceremony a reception was held at the East Kelowna Hall for 225 guests. At the bride's table were Larry Lemky, Jason Drutt and Miss Lorna Watts and Miss Carol Robrig. School friends of the bride acted as serviteurs.

An orchestra was presented with his bride's shoe which had been stolen from her and passed among guests. In it was 27.31. Mr. Willis Clark emceed the variety program which followed the supper.

The happy couple motored to Keremeos and Merritt for their honeymoon. For the journey the bride chose a red and black two-piece dress, with black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Quest For Dead Sea Scrolls Reportedly at Crucial Stage

LONDON (AP)—Fragments of the Bible, some of which may be as old as 2,000 years, are being sought by a team of British and Israeli scholars in a quest for the Dead Sea Scrolls.

British Bible experts fear that within the next few months the secrets from these crumbling manuscripts may be lost to scholars forever.

Unanswered questions like these might yet be solved by the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls. What exactly happened to Jesus' disciples after the Crucifixion?

Why did the original Jewish Christians disappear and leave the teachings of Christ to pass out of Jewry into the Roman world?

How did Jesus spend His childhood and what happened to His family? The Dead Sea Scrolls are still in the possession of the Bedouins who found them deep in the Holy Land's dark, craggy caves where they have lived for 1,900 years.

Professor John Marco Allegro, a Manchester University Bible expert just back from Jerusalem, said on his return the scrolls search has reached a crisis point.

Funds are lacking, he said, to buy remaining scrolls from the Bedouins or continue the research establishment in Jerusalem. What has the research revealed so far?

For the last 10 years an international team of Bible scholars has patiently and quietly pored over the tiny fragments—many no larger than a fingernail.

CLAIMS CORRECTED From this translation scholars have corrected some of the exaggerated early claims made, on the basis of hasty and superficial examination, after the scrolls were first discovered in 1947 by a Bedouin shepherd boy.

"The scrolls are only beginning," said Allegro, the British member of the scrolls team. "The possibilities are endless and exciting for both the Christian and Jewish religions."

So far, only a small fraction of the scrolls has been published—most will take many years more to translate and interpret. Some experts estimate it will be 10 or 15 years before the translation task is finished.

Questioned, for instance, about the Book of Enoch, Allegro said fragments were found in 1952 but the translation job won't be completed for another four or five years.

Enoch, a non-biblical book, did not receive priority, Allegro said, because the book's main value appears to be as a source for the interpretation of the Bible.

Northern Railway Will Be Underway Before Election

VICTORIA (CP) — Premier Bennett of British Columbia said today a proposed northern railway to the Yukon border will be "well underway" before the next provincial election.

In a press conference he gave no indication when the next election will be. The government must call one sometime next year.

The premier was commenting on an Ottawa report that CNR president Donald Gordon had twice offered to assist the province in construction of a northern railway from Prince George in the Central Interior to the Yukon border.

The CNR believed its offer would save $30,000,000 in construction costs.

Mr. Bennett said when the provincially-owned Pacific Great Eastern Railway was under construction the province sought federal assistance.

"We offered to sell it to the CNR. We got no co-operation at all. Now, years after, when we have a different railway building, when we have an agreement with another firm, the CNR comes out belatedly."

He was referring to the railway to be built by the interests of Swedish industrialist Axel Wenner-Gren in conjunction with the development of the Rocky Mountain Trench area. Construction of the railway is scheduled to start in June.

Asked how the province could afford to turn down $30,000,000 in assistance, he replied, "It can't save us money—we are not going to spend any."

It was suggested by reporters that the province would make money from a railway. "The province will make money from it. It will be a feeder line to the PGE," the premier said.

The premier was asked if there is anything in the Wenner-Gren agreement which guarantees the firm will lay more than 100 yards of track before the construction deadline and then abandon the project.

"I think the agreement is definite that they are to build the railway. I don't know where these doubters come from."

"You'll see more than 100 yards of track before the next election," he said.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE — Here's how to work it:
A X Y D L B A A X R
I S L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this sample A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, hyphens and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

E V G N N V Z V Z E Q M G M C G R E
X M C Z Q Y R N A G M C — U Y U Z
Yesterday's Cryptquote: LIKE OUR SHADOWS, OUR WISHES
LENGTHEN AS OUR SUN DECLINES — YOUNG.

Kelowna Hi Notes

The High School Curling Club sponsored a B.C. High School Curling Bonspiel last weekend. There were 24 rinks participating from Kelowna, two from Kamloops, two from Vernon, and two from Penticton. Bob Harris and Paul Mamchur.

The 'spiel lasted from Friday night 'til Sunday, and was a real credit to the hardworking Kelowna curlers.

In the "A" event, 1st went to Chilliwack, 2nd to Bob Harris' rink from Kelowna, and 3rd to Ashcroft. Adie of Kamloops topped the "B" honors, while Jones of Osoyoos won the "C" event.

The Debating Club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Almond, was very active last Wednesday, with two debates in progress—one in Kelowna and the other in Oliver. The topic for both debates was: "Resolved that capital punishment should be abolished in Canada."

Pat Gray and Rees Morgan took the affirmative, while Wayne Marsden and Grant Sherriff presented the negative for Kelowna. Oliver won. In Oliver, Kelowna's Lynn Edwards and Doug McCall argued the affirmative, but were very slightly out-talked by Oliver.

Three members of the girl's Y-Teen Club, Charlotte Penston, Shirley Metke and Lynn Ed-ward, travelled to Victoria Thursday for a provincial Y-Teen conference sponsored by the YWCA.

The main part of the conference was devoted to discussion groups and interesting speakers, but the group of about 135 girls and 60 advisors took time out for a tour of the legislative buildings and tea at the Empress Hotel.

The girls were billeted at private homes, and were also treated to a delicious banquet.

Opening lead—king of clubs.

The declarer is occasionally the unhappy victim of a blind spot. Some hands happen to be so laid out that declarer over-looks a play that is not really difficult if it comes within his scope of vision, but which escapes him because he simply fails to see it.

South was in four hearts and got a club lead. He won with the ace and drew three rounds of trumps. He then led a spade to the nine losing the double-finesse to the jack. East returned a club. Declarer ruffed and took another spade finesse. A club return drew South's last trump.

After entering dummy with a spade, declarer led the ten of diamonds and finessed, hoping East would have the queen. But bad luck pursued South. West won the queen and led a club, removing dummy's last trump.

West then took the last two tricks with a diamond and a club and South went down two.

Now actually South can be sure of making his contract by adopting a much simpler line of play early in the hand. After winning the ace of clubs and drawing three rounds of trumps, all that South has to do to insure the contract is to lead a diamond.

He does not bother with the spade or diamond finessses. He goes straight toward his goal of making ten tricks. Assume he leads the king of diamonds and West takes the ace and returns a club. (If West leads a spade, the queen is played from dummy.)

South ruffs the club and leads a low diamond to force out the queen. West wins and can do no better than to lead another club. Declarer ruffs and cashes his last diamond, on which a spade loser for dummy is discarded.

The end result is that South loses from dummy is discarded, and makes the contract. He does not allow the potential finessses that exist at the beginning of play to obscure his vision. He marches ahead as though he had never heard of a finesse.

YOUR HOROSCOPE

FOR TOMORROW
Generous influences prevail now, with personal and intellectual matters sharing the better aspects. In the latter connection, you should enjoy interesting discussions, lectures and other stimulating cultural activities.

Where finances are concerned, sidestep optimism, unrealistic ideas. Use good common sense and the knowledge gained from past experiences.

FOR THE BIRTHDAY

If tomorrow is your birthday, your horoscope indicates excellent job and financial prospects this year. But do not let optimism on this score lead you into extravagance or unsound speculation, especially during the first weeks of October and November.

Domestic and property matters will be under particularly fine aspects during May, July and December, and creative ideas could prove highly profitable in December. Guard health and avoid nervous tension late in June and, toward the end of December, look for new opportunities to increase your prestige. A child born on this day will be highly idealistic and endowed with fine literary ability.

All the Kelowna delegates had a wonderful time, felt that they had got a lot out of the discussions, and made many new friends from different B.C. points.

This Saturday there is a volleyball tournament at Vernon, with teams from Kelowna, Vernon, Penticton and Princeton participating. We'll have the results for you next week.

Kelowna is also hosting a boys road to the West.

"A" basketball tournament is being held. It should really be exciting, so plan to attend. Last week's typing champions were: Typing 30, Arlene Logan; 100 per cent accuracy, Mitch Hatanaka. Marcia Mervyn-Carol Jones.
